

ABSTRACT

A novel process for the asymmetric synthesis of substituted cyclic β -amino-carboxylates of the type shown in the specification from appropriate β -enamino-ester
5 starting materials is described. These compounds are useful as intermediates for MMP and TACE inhibitors.